I lead the crowd in "Rah Rah Rah"
To cheer the team we like;
But when it comes to cigarettes
I cheer for Lucky Strike!

I really am a Lucky guy,
Just got my Ph. D.
To prove to you how much I know,
L.S., sir means F.T.

Be Happy- Go Lucky!

Enjoy your cigarette! Enjoy truly fine tobacco that combines both perfect mildness and rich taste in one great cigarette - Lucky Strike!

Perfect mildness? You bet. Scientific tests, confirmed by three independent consulting laboratories, prove that Lucky Strike is milder than any other principal brand. Rich taste?
Yes, the full, rich taste of truly fine tobacco.

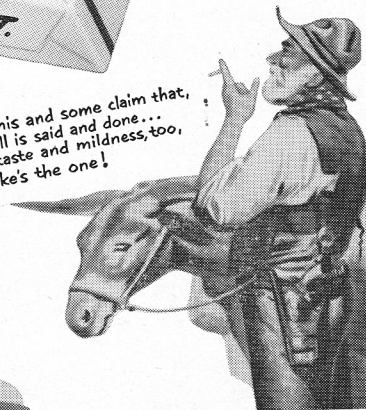

Only fine tobacco gives you both real mildness and rich taste. And Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. So enjoy the happy blending that combines perfect mildness with a rich, true tobacco taste. Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Some claim this and some claim that,
But when all is said and done...
For full, rich taste and mildness, too,
Lucky Strike's the one!

The Bears Are Gunning For a New Record

by NORRIE WEST

ASUC News Bureau Director

With a new Pacific Coast Conference victory record riding on the outcome, California's Golden Bear footballers trek onto the floor of Multnomah Stadium today intent on whipping Coach Jim Aiken's Oregon Ducks.

The Bears, under their miracle mentor—Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf—have triumphed in their last 17 conference encounters. You have to go back to October 25, 1947 to discover the last time California was beaten by a PCC foe. On that fateful afternoon in Berkeley, the rugged Trojans of Southern California upended the Bears, 39 to 14.

Further, you must go back to the great days of dominance by the mighty Trojans of Southern California in the early 1930s to find a comparable records. Under the immortal Howard Jones, the Thundering Herds of Troy also won 17 consecutive PCC games in 1931-32 and 33.

So this afternoon the Bears will be seeking to crack that great all-winning mark held by themselves and the Trojans. To do so they'll have to conquer a fighting Oregon eleven before the Ducks' home folks.

It is indeed questionable whether Waldorf has the "horses" to accomplish this goal. A squad cannot lose 26 lettermen by graduation and emerge a power, and that's how many gridders the Bears have lost from the title-winning 1949 team. Furthermore, that old injury bugaboo has hit California again. Two definite first stringers upon whom Waldorf had counted heavily, Center George Stathakis and Left Guard Ray Solari, were injured before the first 1950 practice. Stathakis re-injured a gimpy knee and Solari is suffering from a bad back strained while digging ditches during the summer. Stathakis is through for the year and Solari won't be back before mid-season.

By Waldorf's own admission, the Bears are fielding the greenest line in the PCC. That is not to say the California line is weak, however. Potentially, the Bear forward wall is very strong if only because of the size and enthusiasm of the personnel.

None of the returning guards or tackles have ever played a minute of varsity ball at their present positions. The starting guards will probably be Les Richter (225 pounds) and Wally Laster (205 pounds), and the first line tackles might well be Bob Karpe (222 pounds) and Ralph Krueger (220 pounds). Karpe and Krueger are both sophs, Richter is a junior and Laster is a senior. The latter two are lettermen, but they played at different positions in 1949—Richter at center and Laster at defensive fullback.

Another problem for the Bears is to find an adequate quarterback replacement for the graduated Bob Celeri. At this writing it appears that one of three men will get the signal-calling nod. The trio is composed of Brent Ogden, a junior, Jim Marinos, a senior, and Dick Lee, a soph. None are lettermen. In fact, Ogden is the only one with any varsity experience, and he played exactly 90 seconds in 1949.

While the line and qb posts are shaky, Bear partisans aren't making excuses for the flank and other backfield posts. Offensive ends will more likely be Bob Cummings (200 pounds) and Roy Ward (175 pounds), both lettermen.

Three other backfield posts will be manned by lettermen of proven ability. They are Left Half Jim Monachino, a certain All-American candidate, Right Half Pete Schabarum, a slippery senior, and Fullback Don Robison, a hard-hitting junior. They are supported by two backs who appear capable of stepping into a starting role with no loss of efficiency for the Bear machine. They are Fullback Johnny Olszewski (pronounced O-SHEV-ski), one of the finest prospects in California history, and Left Half Johnny Pappa, a 180-pound swiftie.

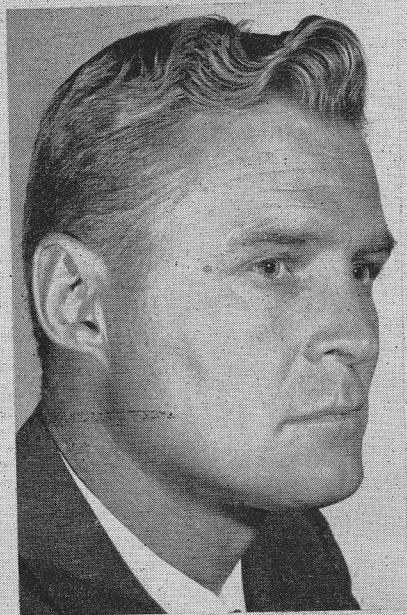

With the above-mentioned gridders as a nucleus, the Bears will be shooting for a new PCC victory record today. They know that the Ducks mean to break the Berkeley monopoly.

Today's game is the twenty-fourth renewal of football competition between the University of Oregon and the University of California. Grid rivalry between the schools was inaugurated in 1899, and since then the Webfoots have won eight games, California 14, and one contest ended in a tie.

Last year the powerful Golden Bears came from behind to score three touchdowns in both the second and third quarters to hand Oregon a decisive 41-14 defeat before 78,000 fans at the Memorial Stadium on the Berkeley campus.

Oregon held an early 7-0 margin in the first quarter when Earle Stelle scored on a one yard buck. A pass interception by Halfback Woodley Lewis set up the Webfoot touchdown.

The Bears, Pacific Coast Conference champions, roared back into contention with three quick touchdowns in the second quarter. Quarterback Bob Celeri passed to Dan Begovich for 11 yards, a short buck by Jim Monachino, and a 67-yard punt return by Paul Baldwin netted tallies for California. Oregon also scored in the second quarter on a seven yard pass from Stelle to Lewis but California remained out in front at halftime with a 20-14 advantage.

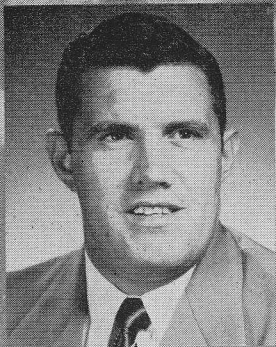

Monachino sparked the Bears' offensive in the third chapter of the game when he sprinted for a pair of touchdowns on runs of 18 and 16 yards. A 30-yard pass interception return by Eric Schultz in the same quarter gave California another tally and the final score of the game. Jim Cullom converted his fourth extra point out of five attempts to make the final count 41-14.

1950 Football Rule Changes

In an effort to clarify the new football regulations, Frank McCormick, Pacific Coast Conference supervisor of officials, has picked out the major changes for 1950.

If a team is short a player because of a mixup on substitution, it may play with 10 men.

The fair catch has been abolished, but the receiver's opportunity to catch the kick may not be interfered with.

Starting of the clock after an interruption is governed by the following:

The referee does NOT signal and the clock starts when the ball is snapped, if the clock was stopped for any of the following reasons:

1. By a touchdown, touchback, safety, field goal, incompleting pass, or a live ball going out of bounds;
2. To exact a penalty (except for illegal delay).

The referee signals for the clock to start when the ball is ready for play, if the clock was stopped for any of the following reasons:

1. By a free or excess time out; or an illegal delay;
2. To award a first down;
3. At referee's discretion.

If a team recovers its own free kick in the field of play, a mandatory time out is called.

Five time outs are permitted each half, instead of four as previously prescribed. (The coach may, without penalty, use a free time out to send a substitute into the game while the clock is running, but before the ball is called ready for play.)

A previous ruling regarding scrimmage kicks has been restored. That is, if a team's scrimmage kick crosses the line of scrimmage and rebounds (untouched beyond the line of scrimmage) to a point behind the kicking team's line, it is a new series (first down) for the kicking team only if the kicking team recovers and advances the ball beyond the original line-to-gain for a first down.

Illegal movement of the ball by the center prior to the actual snap which draws the defense offside results in a penalty against the offensive team. The ball does not remain dead if actually snapped and the defensive team may decline the penalty if the result is more advantageous.

If an offensive team is fouled on a successful try for extra point, it is not necessary to again try for the point. The point is good and the penalty against the defensive team is carried over to the ensuing kickoff.

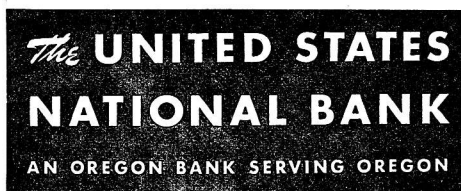

An offensive blocker may use his hands and forearms in blocking when they are in contact with his body, and they must be kept below the shoulder of the opponent throughout the entire block.
